Gameplay

Battle of the Bots: Key Hunters is played on a large map with a variety of different environments, including forests, mountains, and deserts. The objective of the game is to collect keys and survive until the end of the match. Keys can be found in chests, scattered around the map, or by defeating other players.

Once a player has collected all of the keys, they must escape to the extraction point in order to win the match. However, other players will be trying to stop them, so they must be careful and strategic in their approach.

There are a variety of different ways to play Battle of the Bots: Key Hunters. Players can choose to play solo, in a team, or in a squad. Each mode has its own unique challenges and rewards.

In solo mode, players are on their own and must rely on their own skills to survive. This mode is ideal for players who want a challenging and competitive experience.

In team mode, players are grouped into teams of two or three. Teams can work together to collect keys and defeat other teams. This mode is ideal for players who want to cooperate with others and work towards a common goal.

In squad mode, players are grouped into squads of four. Squads can work together to collect keys and defeat other squads. This mode is ideal for players who want to experience the game with a larger group of friends.
