A City of Contrasts

Glasgow is a city of contrasts. It is a city of industry and innovation, but also of culture and creativity. It is a city of grand Victorian architecture, but also of modern skyscrapers. It is a city of immigrants from all over the world, but also a city of proud Scots.

Antoine Wilson's postcards capture all of these contrasts. There are images of the city's iconic landmarks, such as the Glasgow Cathedral and the Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum. There are also images of the city's hidden gems, such as the Willow Tea Rooms and the Glasgow Necropolis. And there are images of the city's everyday life, such as people going about their business on Buchanan Street or enjoying a pint in a traditional pub.

A Unique Perspective

Antoine Wilson's postcards offer a unique perspective on Glasgow. He is not a native of the city, but he has lived there for many years and has come to love it. He sees the city with the eyes of an outsider, but also with the affection of a local. This gives his postcards a special quality that is both fresh and familiar.

Glasgow: The Postcard Collection is a beautiful and evocative tribute to a great city. It is a must-have for anyone who loves Glasgow, or for anyone who wants to learn more about this fascinating city.
