

How Jimmy John Won His Cloak Of Freedom

The Early Life of Jimmy John

Jimmy John was born into slavery in 1840 on a plantation in Kentucky. His parents were both slaves, and he had no idea who his father was. His mother's name was Mary, and she worked in the fields from sunup to sundown. Jimmy John and his mother lived in a small cabin on the plantation, and they were often hungry and cold.

When Jimmy John was 12 years old, his mother died. He was heartbroken, and he didn't know what to do. He ran away from the plantation and lived in the woods for several months. He ate berries and roots, and he slept in caves and under trees.
