Liz is a kind and gentle girl who loves animals. One day, she is playing in the forest when she comes across a group of animals who are being teased by some mean children. Liz stands up to the bullies and defends the animals. The animals are so grateful to Liz that they decide to form a club called The Critter Club.

The Critter Club is a group of animals who are all different shapes and sizes. There is a rabbit named Hops, a squirrel named Squeaky, a raccoon named Bandit, and a skunk named Stinky. The animals in the Critter Club are all friends, and they love to play together.

One day, the Critter Club is playing in the forest when they come across a group of animals who are lost. The animals are scared and don't know what to do. The Critter Club helps the lost animals find their way home, and the animals are so grateful that they decide to join the Critter Club.

The Critter Club is now a group of 23 animals, and they are all friends. They love to play together, and they always help each other out. Liz is so happy to have the Critter Club in her life, and she knows that she will always be there for them.
