In recent months, Marion's health has been declining. She has been experiencing fatigue, pain, and difficulty breathing. Her doctor has advised her to take a break from her volunteer activities so that she can focus on her health.

Marion is saddened to have to take a break from the Critter Club, but she knows that it is the right thing to do. She is grateful for the support of her fellow volunteers and the board of directors, and she looks forward to returning to the Critter Club when her health improves.

The Critter Club is a non-profit organization that provides care and shelter for abandoned and unwanted animals.

The Critter Club is a no-kill shelter, which means that no animal is ever euthanized for space or time. The Critter Club relies on the support of volunteers like Marion to provide care for the animals.

The Critter Club is always looking for volunteers to help out with a variety of tasks, including:

- Caring for the animals
- Cleaning the cages

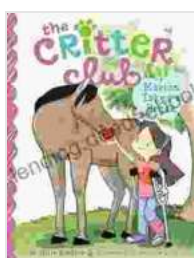

- Helping out with events
- Serving on the board of directors

If you are interested in volunteering at the Critter Club, please contact the shelter at (555) 555-5555.

Marion's dedication to the Critter Club is an inspiration to us all.

Marion has dedicated countless hours to caring for the animals at the Critter Club. She is a true friend to the animals, and she will be missed by all who know her.

We wish Marion all the best in her recovery, and we look forward to her return to the Critter Club.
