- Mozart's Clarinet Concerto: Originally written for clarinet, this concerto has been transcribed for tenor saxophone, preserving its exquisite melodies and technically demanding passages.

- Brahms's Clarinet Sonata in F minor: This emotionally charged sonata features a beautiful and lyrical melody in the first movement, contrasted by a more energetic and syncopated second movement.
- Poulenc's Sonata for Clarinet and Piano: A modern classic, this sonata is known for its playful and witty melodies, as well as its challenging technical sections.

Contemporary Jazz Arrangements

The jazz genre has also embraced the tenor saxophone and piano duo, resulting in a vast repertoire of sheet music. From the infectious rhythms of bebop to the ethereal harmonies of contemporary jazz, these arrangements offer a blend of improvisation and written passages.

- Charlie Parker's "Donna Lee": A bebop classic, this tune features a fast tempo and intricate melodic lines, providing a great workout for both saxophonists and pianists.
- John Coltrane's "Giant Steps": This challenging composition is known for its complex harmonic structure and rapid tempos, making it a favorite among advanced musicians.
- Pat Metheny's "Bright Size Life": A contemporary jazz masterpiece, this piece combines beautiful melodies with extended solos and experimental harmonies.

Finding the Right Sheet Music

Finding the right sheet music for tenor sax piano is essential for both practice and performance. Consider the following factors:
